

Donations for the year ended 30th September 2021 were as follows:

Various/Highland Book Prize public engagement (see Note 1.)	£12,900
Kilmartin Museum (see Note 2.)	£10,000
Moniack Mhor/Highland Book Prize judging expenses	£3,100
Argyllshire Gathering Piping Trust/Gold Medal for Piobaireachd	£1,500
Northern Meeting Piping Trust/Gold Medal for Piobaireachd	£1,500
Gaelic Literature Awards/Fiction Prize	£1,500
MacGregor Piobaireachd Competition expenses	£1,365
Highland Book Prize Award	£1,000
Hands Up for Trad/Gaelic Singer of the Year Award	£1,000
The Elizabeth Ross Manuscript new edition	£1,000
Beneficiaries of former Baroness Von Wilczek Charity	£850
University of the Highlands and Islands/Dissertation Prize	£750
CiRCUS Artspace/Internship support	£600
Royal Scottish Academy/Best Work by a Highlander Prize	£500
Nairn Book and Arts Festival	£500
Piping Times digital archive project	£500
The John Rae Society	£500
Queen Victoria School Annual Highland Dancing Prize	£100

Note 1. – paid out of restricted donations specifically for this purpose, including the £10,000 annual funding from the William Grant Foundation

Note 2. – the target of £35,000 for the Society’s “focus charity” appeal has been reached, comprising the amount above plus £24,000 from prior years and £1,000 given directly