

The Gaelic Literature Awards 2022 The Winners

The winners of the Gaelic Literature Awards have been announced. Prizes were awarded in four categories for books published between 1 May 2021 and 30 April 2022, and also for unpublished manuscripts for adults and children/young people. The prize-giving took place at Cottiers Theatre, Glasgow, on Thursday 15 September 2022.

Best Book for Children/Young People:

Dùbh as by Sylvia Hehir, translated by Johan Smith (Garmoran Publishing)

The Derick Thomson Prize for Best Poetry Book (sponsored by The Scottish Poetry Library):

Eadar Ceòl is Corona by Donald Meek (CLÀR)

The Highland Society of London Fiction Prize:

Constabal Murdo 2: Murdo ann am Marseille by Angus Peter Campbell (Luath Press)

The Donald Meek Award for Best Non-fiction Book:

Ainmean Tuinneachaidh Leòdhais/The Settlement Names of Lewis by Richard A.V. Cox (Clann Tuirc)

Best Unpublished Manuscript for Children/ Young People (in association with Acair):

An Cat Coigreach by June C. Graham

Best Unpublished Manuscript for Adults:

Am Measg Luaithrean Beò by Robbie MacLeod

