

2020 MacGregor Memorial

1st September 2020

The winner of this year's MacGregor Memorial Piobaireachd is Campbell Wilson of Christchurch, New Zealand. Campbell, who came second in last year's competition, impressed judges Ronnie McShannon and Chris Armstrong with his performance of Lord Lovat's Lament.

The remaining finalists, who all played to a high standard and the judges enjoyed all the tunes, were placed as follows:

2nd – Henry Paluch, Aorora, Ontario, Canada, The Lament for the Children

3rd – Ross Conner, Campbeltown, The End of the Great Bridge

4th – Anna Smart, Dunfermline, The MacDougall's Gathering

Thanks to all competitors who took part, the first time that the MacGregor Memorial has taken place by video submission; the finalist's performances can be viewed below:
