

2021 MacGregor Memorial

25th August 2021

The winner of this year's MacGregor Memorial Piobaireachd is Brodie Watson-Massey of Edinburgh, who won over the judges with his playing of Lachlan MacNeil Campbell of Kintarbert's Fancy. The competition took place by video submission for the second year.

All finalists played to a high standard – judges Murray Henderson and Dr Angus MacDonald thoroughly enjoyed all the tunes and congratulated all performers.

2nd. Cameron May, Lesmahagow, playing Lament for Captain MacDougall

3rd. Alistair Bevan, Abbotsford, British Columbia, playing The Groat

4th. Hamish Drennan, Drumnadrochit, playing The Battle of the Pass of Crieff

Thanks to the finalists and all competitors who took part; the finalists' performances can be viewed below:

<https://www.pipingcompetition.com/news/2021-macgregor-memorial-winner-announced>