Dear Mr Ogilvie,

I refer to your letter dated 11th September regarding my recent success in the McGregor Memorial Pìobaireachd competition at the Argyllshire Gathering. I am writing to thank The Highland Society of London for its generosity in awarding me the associated bursary.

This year was my 3rd time competing in the McGregor Memorial. Winning that particular competition has been one of my ambitions, and fulfilling that ambition means a great deal to me. To then also be awarded the very generous bursary was completely unexpected and very much appreciated. It will be a huge help in furthering my piping career.

Please could you convey my thanks to all at The Highland Society of London.

Yours sincerely,

Andrew Ferguson.
