

UPDATE FROM SHAUN FRASER, JULY 2017

I successfully passed my MA at the Royal College of Art and my graduation was on the 30th of June. I just wanted to get in touch to say thanks yet again for the support which the Highland Society of London gave towards my studies. It was an incredibly strained period for me financially, as well as in other regards, and your support really helped.

I'm now back in Inverness for the time being. There are many exciting things happening in the coming weeks - I have a solo show at An Lanntair in Stornoway for the duration of August. I'm then showing as part of the London Design Festival in September followed by a group show in the Netherlands. Very much looking forward to the next few steps in my career.

I've attached some images of work from the RCA degree show. Please pass on my best to the Society.
